We have had differences with Canada over the years, particularly regarding subsidies from the provincial and national governments; nevertheless, Canada remains our close ally, good friend, and one of America's biggest trading partners. In Maine, we have a special relationship with Canada. Many border communities are truly intertwined. Canadian nurses, for example, cross the border every day to work in Maine hospitals. A Madawaska, Maine, mill pumps pulp from the Canadian side of the border...

President Trump's mission to Singapore to meet with North Korean leader Kim Jong-un is a truly historic moment with potential to dramatically reduce the threat of nuclear war. This is not a Republican or Democratic issue. It is an American issue. Every American should stand with President Trump and support his effort. Negotiations will not be easy and achieving denuclearization will be difficult and painstaking -- if it occurs at all. I trust that President Trump and Secretary of State Mike...

Next time you are driving on Schoenherr Road in Warren, if you happen to find yourself wondering what's about 60 feet below you, this photo will provide your answer. This is the Schoenherr Relief Drain, one of a series of large underground drains that primarily run under major roads in the portion of Macomb County south of M-59. These drains are what keeps basements from flooding, streets from becoming impassable in heavy rains and backyards from getting soggy. As with many of our major...
