"At the age of 14 I stepped foot into the strawberry fields as a worker for the first time. It was then, when I realized the value of the hard work of my parents; The sacrifices they had to do in order for us to never need anything, and that meant working long hours on hot and cold days, with their backs bent all day working for less than the minimum wage. I always knew I wanted to go to college, even though I knew I wouldn't be able to pursue a career due to my legal status. That didn't..."
