The congresswoman said detainees relayed disturbing accounts of being held at Border Patrol: “One woman said ‘I want to be with my children’ and the Border Patrol agent said: ‘You will never see your children again. Families don’t exist here. You won’t have a family anymore.” “ #FamiliesBelongTogether via Washington Post

After 97 workers were detained in one of the biggest workplace raids, up to 160 US citizen children now worry about their parent having to leave the country. The community steps up to support families affected. "I cried Thursday night wondering which of my students were without parents that night." - a teacher in Tennessee

ICE Came for a Tennessee Town’s Immigrants. The Town Fought Back.

Agents conducted one of the biggest workplace raids since President Trump announced a crackdown on illegal immigration, detaining 97 workers in Morristown. But for residents, these workers were their neighbors. We won’t stop fighting for the 97 families and for an end to workplace raids.

We're hiring! Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) seeks a Spanish-speaking attorney or law graduate, taking the July 2018 bar examination, to provide direct representation, community outreach and education to individuals seeking legal assistance in a variety of affirmative and defensive immigration matters. This position will be based in NWIRP’s Wenatchee Office. This office serves a client base consisting largely of farmworkers and their families.

VIDEO: This week the Los Angeles community came out in support of immigrants seeking asylum in the U.S. and demand that this administration stop separating children from their parents at the border. This is what #UnitySummer is all about!
At the age of 14 I stepped foot into the strawberry fields as a worker for the first time. It was then, when I realized the value of the hard work of my parents; The sacrifices they had to do in order for us to never need anything, and that meant working long hours on hot and cold days, with their backs bent all day working for less than the minimum wage. I always knew I wanted to go to college, even though I knew I wouldn’t be able to pursue a career due to my legal status. That didn’t...
